Visitor means a visitor to our website without having logged into an account.

DATA WE COLLECT AND HOW WE USE IT:

THE DATA YOU PROVIDE TO US

Registration

To create an account you need to provide data including your name, email address and/or mobile number, and a password. Your user account, allows you to save personal settings, review bookings or plan and manage future bookings. If you register as an Institute, you will also need to provide financial details to link your account to our payment service Provider. We base the processing of your personal data for this purpose on the performance of a contract.

Profile

You have choices about the information on your profile, such as your education, work experience, skills, photo, city or area and reviews. Institutional Clients may choose to complete an Institute Profile that includes Personal Data of their employees. You don't have to provide additional information on your profile; however, profile information helps you to get more from our Services. It's your choice whether to include sensitive information. We base the processing of your personal data for this purpose on the performance of a contract. We do not require Clients to include Sensitive Data in their profile.

Booking a course

When you book a course, you are asked to provide your contact information. Depending on the Institute and course combination, we may also ask your telephone number, date of birth and payment information.

A Star ranking system can be applicable to our Services or Institutes and therefore you might be asked to provide a review. We base the processing of your personal data for this purpose on the performance of a contract.

Posting and Uploading

We collect personal data from you when you provide, post or upload it to our Services, such as when you fill out a form, respond to a survey, or submit a certificate or review on our Services. You don't have to post or upload personal data; though if you don't, it may limit your ability to grow and engage with your network over our Services. For using our Services and to book courses we need a certain piece of information we will ask for. We may collect and process the following types of personal data about you:

Your name, preferred contact details and your payment information. Additional to this we also collect data from your computer, phone, tablet or other device you are using to access our services, such as: IP address, browser info and language settings.

Sometimes we receive information about you from others or automatically collect other information. Below you can find more detailed examples

THE DATA PROVIDED BY OTHERS:

Others using our Services for your use, such as your employer (our Corporate Client), provide us with personal data about you and your eligibility to use the Services that they purchase for use by their workers. For example, we will get contact information for "Corporate Page" administrators and for authorising your use of our Services, such as our Course registration.

When your course is directly booked by a Corporate Client at Certscanner.com, some basic contact information is provided by the Corporate Client, they can also create an account to manage the bookings.

We consider it to be the responsibility of the Corporate Client to ensure that the data they have provided is correct and that you are aware of the processing of your data for this purpose and have understood and accepted how Certscanner.com uses their information (as described in this Privacy Notice).

THE DATA AUTOMATICALLY COLLECTED:

the CS website and/or app collects certain information automatically and stores it in log files. The information may include internet protocol (IP) addresses, the region or general location where your computer or device is accessing the internet, browser type, operating system and other usage information about the use of the CS website, including a history of the pages you view. We use this information to help us design our site to better suit our users' needs. We may also use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and to administer our website, analyse trends, track visitor movements, and gather broad demographic information that assists us in identifying visitor preferences.

CS has a legitimate interest in understanding how Clients and Visitors use its website. This assists CS with providing more relevant products and services, with communicating value to our Institutional and corporate Clients, and with providing appropriate staffing to meet Client needs.

COOKIES AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGIES:

As further described in our Cookie Policy, we use cookies and similar technologies (e.g., pixels and ad tags) to collect data (e.g., device IDs) to recognize you and your device(s) on, off and across different services and devices where you have engaged with our Services. We also allow some others to use cookies as described in our Cookie Policy. You can always opt again out from our use of data from cookies and similar technologies that track your behavior on the sites of others for ad targeting and other ad-related purposes

HOW WE FURTHER USE YOUR DATA

Personal data may further be used in the following ways:

To complete and administer your online booking which is our course business as a compare and booking platform. This includes sending you communications in relation to confirmations, reminders and reviews.

When you link your Certscanner account to your social media account, personal data may be shared with us by that social media provider, but only when it's OK with you for them to do so. You always have the choice not to share this data.

Customer Support: We use data (which can include your communications) to investigate, respond to and resolve complaints and for Service issues (e.g., bugs).

Account facilities: Certscanner.com visitors can create a user account on our websites.

Allowing you to manage your account and personal settings and doing other useful things, we use the information you give us to administer your account. It can also allow you to see any reviews you have submitted. Corporate accounts can save contact details in their account facility and manage their business reservation.

Communication: We will contact you through email, mobile phone, notices posted on our websites or apps, messages to your profile inbox, and other ways through our Services, including text messages and push notifications. We will send you messages about the availability of our Services, security, or other Service-related issues. We also send messages about how to use our Services, network updates, reminders, course suggestions and promotional messages from us, our affiliates and our partners. You may change your communication preferences at any time. Please be aware that you cannot opt out of receiving service messages from us, including security and legal notices.

We may also enable communications between you and others through our Services for example to exchange information, requests, and comments about existing bookings.

If you have not finalized a booking online, we can contact you with a reminder to continue with your booking. The benefit of this additional services is to carry on with a booking without having to search again or fill in your reservation details.

This can also include information about your planning or getting the most efficient possibilities of your booking. We may also send you material related to upcoming relevant courses or a summary of previous courses you made. We take the freedom to inform you also about security alerts.

Marketing activities: Your information will be used for marketing activities. To be updated we might send you regular news of related products such as courses and special offers. Based on the individualized information we are able to provide these personalised special offers. The offers we think which we find interested to you can be booked directly on our website. When you participate in other promotional activities, relevant information will be used to administer these promotions.

Recruitment and Selection: based upon your certificate overview and Bookings we may communicate Contracting opportunities to you on behalf of selected Partners or Affiliates

DEVELOPMENT SERVICES & RESEARCH

Service Development: We use data, including public feedback, to conduct research and development for our Services in order to provide you and others with a better, more intuitive and personalized experience, drive user growth and engagement on our Services

Other Research: We seek to create economic opportunity for Clients and to help them be more productive and successful. We use the personal data available to us to research social, economic and workplace trends, such as skills needed for these jobs and policies that help bridge the gap in various industries and geographic areas. In some cases, we work with trusted third parties to perform this research, under controls that are designed to protect your privacy. We publish or allow others to publish economic insights, presented as aggregated data rather than personal data.

Surveys: Polls and surveys are conducted by us and others through our Services. You are not obligated to respond to polls or surveys, and you have choices about the information you provide. You may opt-out of survey invitations.

Market research: Sometimes we ask our clients to take part in market research. Please see the information provided when you are invited to participate to understand what personal data is collected and how your personal data is used further.

Client reviews: After booking you may be invited to submit a review. This invite is to provide information about the relevant institutes you have booked for. If you complete a review you agree that it can be published (as described in our Terms & Conditions) on our website or apps and/or used in our ranking system. This review will be visible for other Clients, Corporate Clients and institutes. The reason for this feature is to share information to others about the quality and experience of the booked Institute.

Security and Investigations: We use your data for security purposes or to prevent or investigate possible fraud or other violations of our User Agreement and/or attempts to harm our Clients, Visitors or others. This gives us the right to put bookings on hold or to stop until we have finished our assessment.

Legal purposes: We might need to use your information to process and resolve legal disputes for investigation and compliance reasons, to enforce the terms of use of the online booking service or to comply with lawful requests from law enforcement.

Providing your personal data is voluntary. However, we are only able to provide you with our service if certain personal data is collected. (f.i. if we do not collect your name and contact details we are not able to process your booking). We will implement suitable measures to safeguard your rights and freedoms, including the right to obtain human intervention, if we use automated means to process personal data which produces legal effects.

LEGAL BASIS:

We will only collect and process personal data about you where we have a legal basis. Legal basis can include consent (where you have given consent), contract (where processing is necessary for the performance of a contract with you and/or delivery of our Services you requested) and our Legitimate Interests.

Where we process data based on consent, we will ask for your explicit consent. You may decline or withdraw your consent at any time, but that will not affect the lawfulness of the processing of your personal data prior to such withdrawal. Where we rely on contract, you agree to the processing of personal data that is necessary for entering into or performance of your contract with us. We will rely on legitimate interests as a basis for data processing where the processing of your data is not overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms, where we rely on legitimate interests, you have the right to object. If you have any questions about the Legal basis upon which we collect and use your personal data, please contact our Data Protection Officer here dpo@Certscanner.com

SOCIAL MEDIA PLUGINS:

Social media may be integrated in various ways, which will involve us collecting some of your personal data or the social media provider receiving some of your information.

Partly to facilitate the use of online reservation services, promoting related courses, advertisement, improvement of our service and facilitate our service.

Social media plugins are integrated into our website.

If you are logged in to your social media account at the same time, your social media provider may relate this information to your social media account and possibly present your actions on your social media profile to be shared with others in your network.

The “like” button may activate the process to share certain information to the respective social media provider.

Use of Twitter plugin

Functions of the Twitter service can be integrated into our website and app.

The Twitter plugin can be recognised by the Twitter logo on our website and/or app.

These features are offered by Twitter Inc., 1355 Market Street, Suite 900, San Francisco, CA 94103, USA. When you use Twitter and the “Retweet” function, the websites you visit are connected to your Twitter account and made known to other users. In doing so, data will also be transferred to Twitter. We would like to point out that, as the provider of these pages, we have no knowledge of the content of the data transmitted or how it will be used by Twitter. For more information on Twitter’s privacy policy, please go to <https://twitter.com/privacy>.

Your privacy preferences with Twitter can be modified in your account settings at <https://twitter.com/account/settings>.

Use of LinkedIn plugin

We use functions from the LinkedIn network. The service is provided by LinkedIn Corporation, 2029 Stierlin Court, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA.

The LinkedIn plugin can be recognised by the LinkedIn logo on our website and/or app.

Each time you access the news page and share a news post via LinkedIn, your browser establishes a direct connection to the LinkedIn servers. LinkedIn is informed that you have visited our web pages from your IP address. If you use the LinkedIn “Recommend” button and are logged into your LinkedIn account, it is possible for LinkedIn to associate your visit to our website to your user account. We would like to point out that, as the provider of these pages, we have no knowledge of the content of the data transmitted or how it will be used by LinkedIn.

More information can be found in the LinkedIn privacy policy at <https://www.linkedin.com/legal/privacy-policy>.

Use of Facebook plugin

Our website uses plugins from the social network Facebook, Facebook Inc., USA.

The Facebook plugins can be recognized by the Facebook logo on our website and/or app. An overview of the Facebook plugins can be found here: Link

When you visit our website, the plugin establishes a direct connection between your browser and the Facebook server. Facebook receives the information that you have visited our website with your IP address. If you click on the Facebook "Like-Button " while you are logged into your Facebook account, you can link the contents of our website to your Facebook profile. As a result, Facebook can assign the visit to our website to your user account.

We point out that we as the provider of the website do not obtain knowledge of the content of the data transmitted and their use by Facebook. If you do not want Facebook to associate your visit to our website with your Facebook user account, please log out of your Facebook user account.

For more information, see the Facebook Privacy Policy

HOW WE SHARE INFORMATION:

PROFILE AND BOOKINGS:

If you are an Institute, your profile is visible to all Clients and Visitors.

To complete your course booking we transfer relevant booking details to the institute; this may include your name, contact details, payment details, any preferences and other specified information. In this case the Institute is an independent controller of your information. We advise you also to read the privacy notice of the institute you are going to book if you wish to understand how they may process your personal data. We may also exchange information with them about you if there is any suspect of fraud and for prevention purposes. Unless payment is made during the booking process, we will forward your credit card details to the booked institute for further handling.
